St. John Cemetery is a Roman Catholic cemetery, owned and operated by the Saint John's Cemetery Corporation.

History

St. John Cemetery was established in 1879 when Bishop John Loughlin, the first Bishop of Brooklyn, purchased the Mills farm located in Middle Village. The cemetery was consecrated on November 27, 1881. In 1933, the acreage on the southern side of Metropolitan Avenue was developed and made available for interments and, finally in 1947, the last parcel was procured and developed, bringing St. John Cemetery to its present day size of 190 acres.

In 2007, St. John Cemetery was transferred from the Diocese of Brooklyn to Saint John's Cemetery Corporation.
